Duties of Office

The function of the City Council is to develop policies that the City implements. The Council passes laws by ordinance, adopts the budget, authorizes expenditures, approves fees, secures revenues, plans for long-range development of the community and makes zoning and land use decisions, acts as the Successor Agency to the former Redevelopment Agency and as the appellate body for decisions made by Commissions.

The City Clerk attends all City Council meetings as Clerk of the Council, is responsible for the safekeeping of the official City records, is guardian of the City seal, serves as the elections official and conducts municipal elections.

The City Treasurer is responsible for the receipt and deposit of all city monies and the investment of funds as prescribed by the City's Investment Policy. In addition, the City Treasurer is the Plan Administrator of the City of Torrance Deferred Compensation Plans.

Election

The next regular Torrance Municipal Election is scheduled for June 7, 2022 for Mayor, City Clerk, City Treasurer, and City Council Districts 1, 3, and 5. The election will be consolidated on the Los Angeles County ballot with the Presidential Primary Election.

Nominations

The official nomination (filing) period will be open February 14, 2022 and March 10, 2022 on or before 5 p.m. If an eligible incumbent for re-election fails to file, the nomination period will be extended for that District or Office only to March 16, 2022 on or before 5 p.m. The City Clerk meets with candidates by appointment.

The City Clerk issues a nomination paper to prospective candidates at any time within the filing period. The petition must be signed by a minimum of twenty (20) and a maximum of thirty (30) registered Torrance voters. For City Council Districts, signatures must be voters within their district. The circulated petitions and other official documents are due back to the City Clerk no later than the close of nominations. The City Clerk will verify all the signatures and addresses on the petition. Candidates will make an appointment with the City Clerk to return all required filings.

At the time petitions are returned, the candidate may also return a ballot statement (limited to 200 words) to be printed in the Sample Ballot Pamphlet. Statement wording and formatting is strictly limited. Detailed information will be provided at the opening of nominations. Ballot statements are not required. (See Fees Section)

The only other opportunity for a voter to seek any of these seats in the 2022 election is to become a write-in candidate. Write-in candidates are not eligible to submit a candidate statement and will not be listed on an official ballot.

Campaigning generally begins after the close of nominations. Many community groups offer opportunities for candidates to reach voters through candidate forums. Torrance Community Access (TCTV) offers filmed Open Mic spots and the League of Women Voters' Voter's Edge offers an opportunity for candidates to post campaign information online at no cost to the candidate.

Campaign Finance

Campaign Finance is regulated by the Political Reform Act of 1974 (as amended) and Fair Political Practices Commission (FPPC). Specific laws apply to the handling of funds used in campaigns. Manuals and forms are available from the City Clerk and may also be found online at www.fppc.ca.gov. Violations of the Act are prosecutable.

A Form 501 Notice of Intention must be filed with the City Clerk to indicate intent to run for the position. A Form 410 Statement of Organization (original) must be filed with the Secretary of State with a copy of the Form 410 filed with the City Clerk if raising or spending $2,000 or more for a candidacy (including the candidate's own funds). An annual fee of $50 is required to maintain this committee. Technical information is available from the FPPC toll free at 866-ASK-FPPC.

The FPPC provides free workshops online for candidates and treasurers. It is recommended that all candidates attend at least one of these workshops to learn the technical requirements of running for elected office in the State of California. Contact the FPPC for additional information. There is no cost but a reservation to ensure sufficient materials is required for attending a workshop. Contact the FPPC toll free at 866-ASK-FPPC.

The City of Torrance currently has a Campaign Contribution Ordinance. See the Torrance Municipal Code section at the end of this document for complete information.

This information becomes a public record on file in the City Clerk's office and may be viewed by the public.

Fees

There are no filing fees; however, there is a charge for printing a 200 word ballot (candidate) statement in the sample ballot mailed to all registered voters. The City Council has approved a subsidy for printing in the past with the cost for the candidate at $580. This charge is always subject to change. (County costs charged to the City of Torrance estimated between $1400 and $1600 City-wide)

Ethics Training for Candidates for Elective Office

The City Council approved by resolution on October 18, 2011, changes to Torrance Commitment to Ethics statement by adding Candidates for Elective Office, an Ethics Policy for all candidates and Guidelines for Clarifying Your Role as a Candidate. All candidates for elective office and campaign staff will be invited to attend a newly approved voluntary Ethics Training after the close of nominations. (Resolution 2011-92)
